Shanghai Municipal Council.

8th May

1916.

Sir,

It is reported that the Shanghai rebels have demanded $1,000,000 from the Opium Guild in Shanghai. It is said that the opium merchants have promised financial support, provided the rebels guarantee that they will not be approached in future. The amount which the opium merchants are prepared to give is not known, but it is not near so much as requested.

With reference to the report of 6th instant saying that General Chang Hsun ~~朱~~ had placed 5,000 troops at the disposal of ex-Governor Chu ~~朱~~ to enable him to reconquer Chekiang, General Yang has received instructions from Nanking to remain neutral should fighting take place in Chekiang.

Owing to reports that the gunners at Woosung had been bought over by the rebels, twenty men were transferred from the Arsenal on 7th instant to replace some of the gunners there, who are being transferred to Shanghai.

Eight alleged rebels were arrested in Chapei on 7th instant. They are natives of Hunan and Hupeh:-

Sung Foh Kau 沈福高, Zoo Ching San ~~朱~~ 周成山, Tan Bih Ts

Zau Lou ~~朱~~ 周流, Zau Er Laung ~~朱~~ = 赵二郎, Tan Er Laung ~~朱~~ = 蔡二郎, Tsang Da ~~朱~~ 大, Li Ping ~~朱~~ 岳炳義

Two alleged rebels named Woo Yong Fei ~~朱~~ 吴永飞 and Moo Kyih Sun ~~朱~~ 吉生 were arrested at the S.N.R. yesterday.

About 100 Japanese undesirables, who have been repatriated, left here by the "Ori Maru" on 6th instant. Those are the men referred to in the report of 6th instant.

Your obedient servant,

M3 Newell, M.A.

for Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.
